NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL
Life Insurance
COMPANY!
OF BOSTON.
INCORPORATED, 1835. ASSETS, $9,000,000.

The only Company on the Pacific Coast governed by the MASSACHUSETTS NON-FORFEITURE LAW.

That there is absolutely no forfeiture in this Company these examples, furnish sufficient proof:

A. C. E. Miller, of Portland, Oregon, insured under Policy No. 15,054, for $5,000, died over six months after the premium was due and unpaid. The $5,000 was promptly paid the widow; less the unpaid premium.

J. W. Jones, of Colusa, Cal., insured under Policy No. 28,016, for $10,000, died over four months after the premium was due and unpaid. The $10,000 was promptly paid the widow, less the unpaid premium.

Is it not an object for you to insure in a Company where your policy is protected by such a wise and equitable law?

☞ This Company is not restricted to investing its funds in Massachusetts. The funds are invested in the best securities, where the largest interest is obtainable. Thus it has been enabled to return as dividends to the policy holders, in cash, during the last four years, $2,460,109 00. Dividends payable annually in cash.

THE YOLO DEMOCRAT.

VOL. III. WOODLAND, YOLO COUNTY, CAL., SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1870. NO. 38.

ODE.

The following original ode was recited by JOHN G. SAXE, before the Tammany Society, on the Fourth of July:

'Tis the voice of the croaker—I hear him complain,
"These Tammany boys, they are at it again!
Why keep such a feast in a partisan way?
Independence, I'm sure, is a National Day!"
So it is! God be praised! and that is just why
We Democrats honor the Fourth of July!
Were it anything other, or smaller, I own
We'd all be contented to let it alone;
Or leave it to men—to a party, I'll say,
Accustomed to think in a narrower way;
A party peculiarly fitted to shine
(With a blue sort of light) in a different line;
Whose leaders, for instance (I won't call them knaves),
Being partial to soldiers—when cold in their graves—
Appointed a day (be it tenderly said)
For crowning with flowers the patriot dead;
"Flowers, flowers for the heroes!" the demagogues cry,
While wiping a tear that is "all in your eye"—
"One day for the soldier to memory dear!"
Whom living they robbed every day in the year!
And still at the Capitol mark how they treat
The soldier too noble to cringe at the feet
Of the Dons who determine a General's merit
By the gauge—nothing else—of his partisan spirit.
Mere fealty to party they reckon much higher
Than service to country, and so they inquire
If he's fluent of speech in the radical cant?
And "what has he done now, for Gen. Grant?"
"Don't tell us," they cry, "of his honors and scars;
But what is the brand of his vote—and cigars?"
"A hit at the magistrate!" some one exclaims;
Well I shan't abuse him by calling him names;
I honor his office; and let us reflect
The head of the nation demands some respect.
I do not forget he's our President, placed
In the chair that a Jackson and Jefferson graced;
Let us recollect that, till he's laid on the shelf,
However he seems to forget it himself.
And as to abuse with the worst I could say
By giving my genius the liveliest play,
I never could hope to accomplish the end
Half so well as I heard a Republican friend,
Who having, unwisely, forgot to subscribe,
Or being unluckily, not of the tribe
Presidential or "Dent"al, as certainly failed
Of the office he sought for, and therefore assailed
The man in such language as passes belief
That one could employ in denouncing his chief.
He said—as I heard it you will receive it—
Pray do not imagine I think you believe it—
He said in such bitter, extravagant speech
As simple hyperbole never could reach;
Pronounced in a manner less civil than hearty,
"The fellow disgraced the Republican party!"
Apropos of the party of which I've made mention,
Suppose I should give it some further attention:
It has very few friends, and while I am "in,"
I own the temptation to "hit it again."
A party which boxes with singular ease,
Immoral proceedings on "moral ideas?"
But favors the big ones, or holds them intact;
Like the land-stealing rascals and similar jobbers,
Meek-faced parliamentary "Radical" robbers,
Who hasten to place on the visible hand
That deals in cadetships an infamous brand;
White their own, at the moment, grown bolder and bolder,
Are plunged in the treasury up to the shoulder.

Success to old Tammany, long may she stand
The bulwark of freedom—the pride of the land!
What parties and factions of transient renown
In her Century's life have come up and gone down.
While she looking on in her vigilant way,
Poked her fun at the farce, or her hand at the fray;
And still to her honor, whatever her fight,
Had a word and a blow in defence of the right.
She hailed the first trumpet of Liberty's cause,
And her motto to-day is "The Union and Laws."
She stood by the flag, when Old England once more,
Unschooled by disaster, invaded our shore,
And got the old lesson repeated so plain
She scarcely will need to be taught it again!
And when it befell that the tottering State,
For the wind of dissension that Faction and Hate
Through the length of the land had been sowing afar,
Was reaping the whirlwind of treason and war,
Still true to the Union see Tammany stand
With "the old starry banner" still firm in her hand,
While foes at the South would the Union divide
And fools at the North were for "letting it slide!"

Success to Old Tammany! therefore, I say,
(How sweetly she smiles on the festal day!
In health, strength and beauty, long, long may she stand,
The bulwark of Freedom—the pride of the Land.

Strange Affair in Rondout.

The Rondout Courier, of July 12th, gives the following account of a singular dream: Mrs. Dennis Mooney, who lives on East Ravine street, awoke from a horrible vision on the night of July 4th. She dreamt she saw a tall, slim man, dressed in black, strike her son, Michael Mooney, in the forehead with a bar of iron, and throw him into the creek. The deed seemed to have been committed somewhere near the dock. Mrs. Mooney awoke from her sleep with a shriek so loud as to be heard through the house, and so strong was the impression upon her that there was truth in her dream that she arose and dressed herself and went down to the dock, to find out, if possible, whether or not her son was yet alive. He was a hand on the steam tug Sarah E. Brown. Mrs. Mooney found the tug lying outside of a barge, in front of a storehouse. Peter Dally, the captain of the barge, had just come on board, and seeing the woman apparently in distress, asked her what the matter was. This was about 1 o'clock. Dally and Mrs. Mooney went on the tug, but Michael Mooney was not there. Evidently he had been to his berth, for the coat he had worn during the day was near it. Foul play was suspected, and a search was at once begun in the creek for his body. His hat was found floating in the water near the ferry. The corpse was recovered on Thursday morning near Powell's dock, rapidly decomposing. The head was much swollen, but no marks of violence were discovered. If the man had been murdered as his mother had dreamed, there would have been some contusion on the flesh of the forehead that would show; but there was nothing of this kind. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of "accidental drowning," as it was proved Mooney had been somewhat intoxicated during the day, and it was most probable he had accidentally fallen overboard. Yet the dream was remarkable to say the least. As the watch of the drowned man stopped at 36 minutes past 12, and Mrs. Mooney reached the dock about 1 o'clock, it is evident her son was drowning at the very moment of her dream.

A RECEIPT WORTH PRESERVING.—A lady of Portland, Oregon, says that for nine years past she has been burning coal oil without even an accident. She places a small quantity of coarse salt in the bottom of her lamps, and not only by this means is the oil purified and the light made brighter, but, on two different occasions, ignited coal lamps have overturned in her house through accident, or the carelessness of servants, and yet there never has been an explosion. The plan is a simple one, and well worth trying; for even if it does not prevent accidents, it will improve the quality of the light. The salt should be changed every three months.

A LUNATIC in a New England town was discovered one day recently at the grave of his father in the cemetery, having dug to the coffin. He had the lid open, and was calling on the old man to get up, telling him that he had lain there long enough.

The Greatest Crime the World has ever known.

(From the Omaha Herald, July 21st.)

During the past year circumstances have transpired in the Yellowstone country which will create indignation and alarm throughout the whole Union. A crime has been committed which excels in diabolism anything which the history of the world has ever produced, and which places such fiends as Probst and his compeers in crime in the light of moderate offenders. A few men, for the purpose of accumulating fortunes, have attempted to scatter throughout the United States robes infected with small-pox. This had been premeditately and knowingly, and with the full knowledge that in doing so they have been the means of spreading a loathsome disease from one end of the country to the other, and sacrificing human lives in unknown numbers. We give the particulars of this, the most terrible crime of the nineteenth century, as fully as we have been able to obtain them:

During last Summer the Steamboat Utah plied between Sioux City and Fort Benton. During one of her trips the small-pox broke out among the passengers and crew, and but one death occurred on the trip. The boat landed a short distance below Milk river, and there the corpse was buried. The burial was witnessed by a number of Indians, of the Gros Ventres tribe, as soon as the boat resumed its course, the body was disinterred, and the clothing stripped from the remains and distributed among the party who had perpetrated the act of desecration. The consequence may be imagined. In proper course of time the dreadful contagion broke out in its most virulent form among the savages. The devastation was so terrible that, out of 1,900 members of the tribe, 750 died.

The Utah arrived at Fort Benton, bringing with it the most fearful cargo that ever floated on the waters of the Missouri. The people of that place when they ascertained the danger that menaced them, were indignant to an extent never before known in that country. A public meeting was held, which was attended by every man in the place, and the most intense excitement prevailed. There were many who proposed to take the Captain of the boat and hang him to the nearest tree, as a punishment for having been the cause of pestilential danger among them. But wiser counsels prevailed, and the master of the steamer was ordered, at the peril of his life, to convey the boat and cargo to the other side of the river. But, as was afterwards ascertained, another and a greater danger threatened them. The disease among the Indians spread with the velocity of the wind. Having no remedies, no physicians and no care, the children of the forest died off like a flock of infected sheep, until the tribe was diminished to about half its former numbers. The Indian burial ceremony is not such as prevails among the civilized world. It is a custom, without deviation, to lay the dead upon the ground in the robe which incased the body while living, and cover up the remains with brush. There are speculators in the Indian country whose sole object in life seems to be to make money, without the slightest regard for the manner in which they do it. The robes which inclosed the dead bodies were valuable.

The speculators, aware of this, determined to profit by it, and with no compunctions of conscience as to the consequences, not seeming to care in the least, for the terrible suffering which the act would entail upon they knew not how many innocent victims, these men did not hesitate to roam the country in quest of the infected robes, and to convey them for storage to a warehouse in Fort Benton. Benjamin de Roche, a workman in the warehouse, was the first victim, and it was a short time before nearly every house in Fort Benton was a small-pox hospital. Many died, and the most agonizing suffering prevailed. In the house of De Roche at one time there were ten persons in bed afflicted with the contagion which prevailed. The business houses were closed, and the city seemed doomed to desolation and death. In the face of this horrible visitation, those who had engaged in the unholy traffic did not desist. They asserted that the place was alive with small-pox, and that, as it could be no worse, the arrival of and storage of robes could make no difference. And thus, in the very midst of death, desolation and despair, these human vultures continued their pestilence-breeding, death-dealing occupation. There is one incident connected with this startling horror which places a white victim in an attitude which, though he may not have known the full extent of the consequences of his act, was certainly a most fiendish one, and which was the cause of a greater destruction of life than the circumstances we have mentioned. This man, while he was suffering with the disease, obtained two yeast cans and filled them both with scabs.

As soon as he was able to do so, he took an old shirt, rubbed it thoroughly with the contents of the boxes, and then placed the infected garment on the trail of the Piegans, on Highwood creek where the Indians would be sure to find it. They did so, and in a short time afterwards the most frightful calamities were visited upon that tribe. It spread with wonderful rapidity among the Blackfeet, Bloods, and River Crows, until the whole country within a radius of one hundred miles of Fort Benton, and extending along the river to a much greater distance, was infected with the disease, and deaths occurred by the thousands. From this awful source the speculators reaped a rich harvest. Robes and blankets were gathered in by the thousands and conveyed by boats down the river, thus conveying and scattering the disease broadcast over the land. The Government was finally informed of the matter, and General Hancock was promptly ordered to prohibit the shipment of robes unless they were first inspected and found to be in a healthy condition. As there were few in the country not infected, the abominable traffic ceased, and the inhuman wretches who were engaged in it were, for a time, deprived of the benefits their infamous trade had conferred upon them. But they did not despair. The ingenuity of the villain, certainly, is as apt as that of honest men. Cut off from shipping the diseased robes by river, they determined to take them overland, and gain a market by means of railroad communication. Thanks to the vigilance of the managers of the Union Pacific Railroad, and to the prompt assistance of the military, this latter scheme has been throttled in its incipiency, and no more robes can pass over that road without having been inspected by a Government officer and pronounced to be in a good condition. There are now, at Uinta Station, 1,300 robes which have been detained for examination. A day or two since General Ruggles dispatched a Government officer, accompanied by a surgeon, to that point, to make a thorough inspection of the suspected robes. It is believed that they are all right; but it is also known that the unscrupulous murderers from Fort Benton have been actively at work, and the most rigid scrutiny will be observed at all times. Not a single robe will be permitted to pass Omaha that has not been examined by a competent officer. It is thought by many that the recent visitation of the pestilence to this city—which, thank God is now over—was caused in this manner, and that the disease originated in the burial, one year ago, of a solitary passenger on the banks of the Missouri, hundreds of miles away. If the horrible consequences of that act could be computed, and the lives it had taken be enumerated, the record would be a frightful, ghastly one.

Moltke, the Prussian Commander.

The Prussian Chambers in the fall of 1866 voted 1,500,000 thalers, or $1,100,000 in gold, as a national recompense to six men—the Ministers Bismarck and Von Roon, and the four Corps Commanders Moltke, Herwarth, von Bittenfeld, von Steinmetz, and Voble von Falkenstein. The Crown Prince and Prince Frederick Charles were excluded from these appropriations by their royal rank.

Gen. Von Moltke, born in Mecklenburg, on the family estate, is the son of an officer who afterward acquired property in Holstein. He and his brother were educated at the Juvenile Military school at Copenhagen, where, almost strangers, they passed no very agreeable time. Of the other three Generals, all Prussians by birth, two were educated in military schools. De Falkenstein's widowed mother intended to fit him for a Catholic Priest, but the general rising of Prussians against the French in 1813, and the appeal of Frederick William III. to his people, made the enthusiastic youth change the tonsure for the uniform.

The four Generals above named made their first experience in war against the first Napoleon, and distinguished themselves, while still almost in boyhood, by bravery and intellect. Their experience was renewed either in Baden or Schleswig.

Chief among the Prussian commanders is he whose genius is believed to have planned the campaign which ended in the great battle of Sadowa.

In the Behren street, in Berlin, a building not distinguished by fine architecture is the residence of General Moltke. He is a very tall, lank person, not yet bent by age, but leaning forward as tall men frequently do. He has a high brow and thoughtful eye, and wears an expression of kindness and modesty. He receives visitors with all the ease of a thoroughbred gentleman, in a study decorated with the portraits of the royal family and army officers. The General is so taciturn that his comrades call him "the man who is silent in six languages," for he has made it a point to learn several languages thoroughly. It must be said that in the army he always distinguished himself by his love for information and study, and obtained preferments which are measured out very sparingly, but with care and discernment, in the Prussian army. He was one of the few Prussian officers who were sent with General de Noritz, to be present during the Russo-Turkish campain in 1828 and 1829, about which he published a book containing excellent sketches. In 1836 he became General, and in 1839 Lieutenant-General. He was afterward Adjutant of the Crown Prince, and accompanied him twice to England.—New York Evening Post.

DEATH OF DR. RICE.—The Alta of the 4th has the following in relation to Dr. D. W. C. Rice, recently deceased: Dr. Dewitt C. Rice, who had been a prominent business man of California for twenty years, died yesterday morning in this city. He came to California in the bark Linda, from New York, with Louis Cunningham, Mark Brumagim and others, who landed at San Francisco, in September, 1849, and established themselves in Marysville. He went into the drug business there, and continued in it until within a couple of years, part of the time being a member of the firm of Redington & Co. His business tact, general information, sound judgment, strict honesty and genial character gave him much influence, and so long as he remained in Marysville he was regarded as one of the chief men of the place. He was chosen President of the California Pacific Railroad, and retained his position until he resigned about two months ago on account of ill health. When the road took an important place in the business of the State, Dr. Rice moved to this city, and he resided here till the time of his death. He leaves a widow, three children, many friends, no enemies, and a name without reproach.

POOR GRANT! — The Fort Wayne Democrat says no President of the United States ever lost his influence so completely as has General Grant. It is admitted by all sojourners in Washington that the existence of the President is almost ignored by his party. His recommendations to Congress are treated with silent contempt; his known wishes are repeatedly rebuked, and he is snubbed personally by all the leading members of his party. His nomination of Judge Hoar to the Supreme Bench, his advocacy of the Shipping bill, and the fate of the San Domingo treaty are notable instances of this. He is so conscious of his weakness, that he has given himself up entirely to the care of Boutwell and Butler, and these two individuals are running the Government for their own private use. The only evidence that Grant gives of good sense is that he keeps his spoons under lock and key.

LEMON JUICE IN DIPTHERIA.—Dr. Revillout in a paper presented last summer to the French Academy of Medicine, asserts that lemon juice is one of the most efficacious medicines which can be applied to diptheria, and he relates that, when a dresser in the hospital, his own wife was saved by this timely application. He got three dozen lemons, and gargled her throat with the juice, swallowing a little at the same time, in order to act on the more deep-seated parts. The doctor has noted numerous cases wherein complete success was obtained by this method of treatment.

Fulton's First Voyage by Steam.

The following reminescence of Fulton's first steam voyage, and the reception of the first passage money, was communicated to the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser by R. W. Haskins: Some years since I formed a traveling acquaintance upon a steamboat on the Hudson river, with a gentleman, who on that occasion, related to me some incidents of the first voyage of Fulton to Albany, on his steamboat the "Clermont," which I never met with elsewhere. The gentleman's name I have now lost, but I urged him at the time to publish what he related, which, however, so far as I know, he never has done.

"I chanced," said my narrator, "to be at Albany on business, when Fulton arrived on his unheard-of craft, which everybody felt so much interest in seeing. Being ready to leave, and hearing that this craft was to return to New York, I repaired on board and inquired for Mr. Fulton. I was referred to the cabin, and there found the plain, gentlemanly man, wholly alone and engaged in writing.

"'Mr. Fulton, I presume.'

"'Yes, sir.'

"'Do you return to New York, with this boat?'

"'We shall try to get back, sir.'

"'Can I have a passage down?'

"'You can take chances with us, sir.'

"I inquired the amount to be paid, and after a moment's hesitation, a sum, I think six dollars, was named. The amount, in coin, I laid in his open hand, and, with an eye fixed upon it, he remained so long motionless, that I supposed there might be a miscount, and I said to him, 'is that right sir?'

"This roused him as from a kind of reverie, and as he looked at me, a tear was trembling in his eye, and his voice faltered as he said, 'excuse me, sir, but memory was busy as I contemplated this, the first pecuniary reward I have received for all my exertions in adapting steam to navigation. I would gladly commemorate the occasion over a bottle of wine with you, but, really, I am too poor even for that just now; yet I trust we may meet again when this will not be so.'

"'Some four years after, when the 'Clermont' had been greatly improved, and two new boats made, making Fulton's fleet of three boats plying regularly between New York and Albany, I took passage in one of the three for the latter city. The cabin, in that day was below, and as I walked its length to and fro, I was very closely observed by one I supposed to be a stranger. Soon, however, I recalled the features of Mr. Fulton, but, without disclosing this, I continued my walk, and waited the result. At length, in passing his seat, our eyes met, when he sprang to his feet, and eagerly seizing my hand, exclaimed: 'I knew it must be you, for your features have never escaped me, and, although I am still far from being rich, yet I may venture that bottle now.'"

It was ordered, and during its discussion Mr. Fulton ran rapidly, but vividly, over his experience of the world's coldness and sneers, and of the hopes, fears, disappointments and difficulties, that were scattered through the whole career of discovery, up to the very point of its final triumph, at which he as fully felt he had arrived. 'And in reviewing all these,' said he, 'I have again and again recalled the occasion and the incident of our first interview at Albany; and never have I done so without its renewing in my mind the vivid emotion it originally caused. That seemed, and still does seem, to me the turning point of my destiny—the dividing line between light and darkness in my career upon earth, for it was my first actual recognition of my usefulness to my fellow men.'"

The North Carolina Election.

NEW YORK, August 6.—Thomas Brady, Chairman of Conservative Executive Convention of North Carolina, telegraphs to the World that the Conservatives have carried the State, and that Judge Brooks, United States District Judge, will grant writs of habeas corpus under the Att of Congress, February, 1867.

WILMINGTON, August 6.—Returns enough have been received to settle the fact that the Conservatives will carry both Houses of the Legislature by a decisive majority. They carry the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Congressional Districts, which makes the delegation stand: Five Conservatives and two Radicals. In the Third District, Weddell, Conservative, is undoubtedly also elected, though there are two counties yet to be heard from. Careful estimates fix his majority at 375. It is conceded that Skeep, the Conservative candidate for Attorney-General, carries the State.

RALEIGH, August 6.—The election returns received to-day confirm the opinion that the State has gone Democratic by from five to fifteen thousand majority. Cobb, in the First District, and Dixon, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Heaton; and Thomas, all Republicans in the Second District are certainly elected.

Additional returns render it certain that Weddell, Conservative, is elected to Congress in the Fourth District. Rogers beats Harris about nine hundred votes; Beach, Conservative, is elected over Scott, Radical, in the Sixth District; Harper, Conservative, is doubtless elected over Jones, Radical, in the Seventh District. Both Houses of the Legislature will be largely Democratic; some claim two-thirds majority in each House.

UNDREAMED POSSIBILITIES.—If, says the N. Y. Day Book, ten years ago, some one had predicted that the American people would permit a standing army that costs more than that of France, and sweat and toil to support this vagabond horde of military idlers, what an extravagant madman they would have thought him! And if, furthermore, some one had predicted that the Abolitionists would steal the niggers of the South from their masters, and keep an army to protect them while they were transforming these negroes from useful laborers into voting machines to keep themselves in power, few, indeed, could be found so utterly besotted as to even conceive of such a monstrous possibility. But if, in addition to all this, some prophetic soul had declared that men calling themselves Democrats would be found willing to "accept the situation," surely no one would deem that possible short of a million years at least, and yet the wild and accursed thing does actually confront us; there are men, calling themselves Democrats, who assent to a standing army, and consent to be ruled by the nigger vote of the South!—Louisa Sun.

OFFICIAL PAPER.

WOODLAND,

Saturday, August 13th, 1870.

WHEAT.—Market unsettled; quotable at $1 50 to $1 60 per 100 lbs.

SUSPENDED.—The Martinez Express has been indefinitely suspended.

KENTUCKY THE TRUE.—The Democratic majority in Kentucky is about 50,000.

SLIGHT SHOCK.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt in San Francisco on Tuesday night.

MARE ISLAND.—Orders have been received at Mare Island to fit the ironclads Monadnock and Comanche for sea at once.

INCREASE.—The taxable property of Solano county will be above $7,000,000 this year, being an increase of about a million over last year.

The harvest in Monterey county has turned out much better than was anticipated. The Democrat says, "The wolf will cross few thresholds this year."

APPOINTED.—Calvin Brown, Civil Engineer, Mare Island, Wm. Sherman and T. B. Shannon are appointed Commissioners of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

NEW DEPOT AT MARYSVILLE.—On Wednesday, for the first time, the Vallejo cars received and delivered passengers at the depot of the Oroville road in Marysville.

REPRESENTATIVE SARGENT has received assurances from the Navy Department that the necessary repairs of the Asiatic fleet will hereafter be made at Mare Island.

NEW DEMOCRATIC DAILY.—The Chicago Democrat will be published as a daily after the 1st of next September. Live men and money are its backers, and nothing short of a first-class sheet may be expected.

VALLEJO CHRONICLE.—After failing to reach us for several weeks, the Vallejo Evening Chronicle has come to hand in an enlarged form, with a new dress, and looking neat as it is lively. We should be pleased to receive the Chronicle regularly but not otherwise. It is a good newspaper.

THE "YOUNG FOLKS' RURAL."—This is the title of a new Rural and Literary Monthly, designed for Young Men and Young Women, which is soon to be issued by H. N. F. Lewis, the publisher of the Western Rural, at Chicago. Prizes are offered for stories and contributions from young writers. $1.00 per year.

LOVE FOR THE FATHERLAND.—On the arrival of the ocean steamship Cambria at Havre, France, recently, on her regular trip from Hamburg to New York, five hundred Germans bound to America as emigrants, hearing that war was declared, immediately turned back to enlist in the Prussian army.

THE WAR.—The war news is of a very exciting character, and we publish details so far as our space will permit. The Prussians evidently have the best of it. They are pressing Napoleon very closely, and in one battle the French army was utterly routed. It looks as though the Napoleonic dynasty was drawing to a close.

THE SEAT OF WAR.—We are under obligations to the gentlemanly agent of the Equitable Life Insurance Company for a new and complete map of the seat of war, showing the most minute points, boundaries, etc. One of the secrets of the unparalleled success of the Equitable is in keeping its name prominently before the public.

AWFUL TO CONTEMPLATE.—The Territorial Enterprise, speaking of the Kentucky election, says of that noble State: "It seems to be so hopelessly gone, politically, that, could our will effect the purpose, we would keep it Democratic for a generation to come, as 'a horrible example' for the benefit of the Republican party elsewhere."

THE following is a list of the fall elections. In Alabama, Arkansas and Kentucky the election took place August 1st. North Carolina held hers on the 4th instant, and Tenesee on the 11th. Those to occur are: Vermont, September 6th; Maine, September 12th; Indiana, October 1st; Florida and Mississippi, October 3d; Iowa, Ohio and Pennsylvania, October 11th; West Virginia, October 27th; Delaware, Kansas, Louisiana, Minnesota, and Missouri, November 1st; South Carolina, November 7th; Maryland, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New York and Wisconsin, November 8th.

REMARKABLE PHENOMENON.—The Lexington Caucasian publishes a letter from a correspondent at Freedom, Mo., which states that on the 5th of July the family of Joseph Younge were startled by the appearance of a column of flame in the air, which extended many hundred feet upward to a point, and rapidly approached the earth. It was attended with a rushing noise, which became almost deafening as it drew near, and ended with a report like the loudest thunder. From the commencement of the light until the report, was scarcely more than a second. Soon after the occurrence, at a distance of some two hundred yards from Mr. Younge's house, was found a body of metallic characteristics and irregular form. Its weight is about as much as an ordinary man can readily lift. Its color is a dark brown, almost black, and in one spot it shows a metallic tint. When struck with a hammer it gives a sonorious ring, and indicates a good degree of elasticity. It also bears evidence of having been subjected to intense heat.

North Carolina Election.

Again the Democrats and Conservatives have gone and done it. North Carolina has cleaned out Radicalism by giving a Conservative majority at the election held in that State on the 4th instant, so overwhelming that even those who hoped for such a result are astonished. Not all the rascally management of the infamous Governor Holden, aided and abetted by Grant and his minions at Washington, could stifle the voice of the people. Vox populi vox Dei is again exemplified in the Old North State by this expression at the polls. The Democrats have elected fully two-thirds of the members of both branches of the Legislature in spite of all the opposition that could be brought to bear by State and Federal authorities, in spite of the negro vote, in spite of all the money spent to secure it to the Radicals and continue the villainous horde of officials in power, who have been up to this time sustained in their places, in opposition to the will of an outraged people, by Federal bayonets. All that the people in the South want, in order to array themselves on the side of Democracy and good government, is an opportunity to give expression to their wishes at the polls. So it has proven in almost every instance, thus far. Remove the millitary, and allow free expression through the ballot box, and Radicalism—now stinking intolerably in the nostrils of the people—will be buried so deep as no longer to cause annoyance. There is no more need of Federal troops in the South to-day than in Democratic New York or California. But that's just what's the matter—because the people will not vote the Radical ticket are Federal troops kept there. The thing is so infamous that it cannot be continued much longer. The party in power at Washington would make Republican Government a mockery—it has done so throughout the South ever since the war. A few more such knells, however, as have just reached us from North Carolina and Kentucky will send the leaders sneaking to their kennels, glad to escape the indignation of an abused and outraged people.

THE WAR IN EUROPE.

The First Battle at Haguenau.

THE FRENCH ACCOUNTS.

PARIS, August 7th.—The Journal Officiel publishes the following proclamation:

"Frenchmen:—Up to this hour we have given, without reserve, all certain news which we have received, and we continue to do so. Last night we received the following dispatch:

METZ, August 6th,—Midnight.—Marshal McMahon has lost a battle. General Frossard, on the Sarr, has been obliged to retreat. His retreat was effected in good order. All can be retrieved. NAPOLEON.

METZ, August 7th—3:30 A. M.—My communications have been interrupted with Marshal McMahon. I am going to place myself in the centre of the position. NAPOLEON.

METZ, August 7th—4:30 A. M.—Major General of the Army, to the Minister of the Interior: After a series of engagements, in which the enemy brought a heavy force into the field, Marshal McMahon was forced to fall back from his first line. The corps of General Fossard had to fight yesterday from two P. M., with an entire army of the enemy. Having held his position until six P. M., he ordered a retreat, which was made in good order.

LE BŒUF.

Details of our losses are wanting. Our troops are full of elan. The situation is not compromised in our territory, and a serious effort is necessary. A battle appears imminent. In the presence of this grave news our duty is plain. We appeal to the patriotism of all. The Chambers have been convoked. We are placing Paris with all possible haste in a state of defence. In order to facilitate the execution of military preparations, we declare the Capital in a state of seige. There must be no faint heartedness, no divisions. Our resources are immense. Let us pursue the struggle without flinching, and the country will be saved.

By order of the Empress Regent, and signed by each of the Ministers.

PARIS, August 7—via London.—The Senate and Corps Legislatiff have been summoned to meet on Thursday, 21st instant. The dispatch from the Emperor, announcing McMahon's defeat and his separation from the main army, caused the utmost consternation. According to the Emperor, however, all may yet be retrieved.

The Prussians are over the frontier, and advancing on Paris. The French speak of a great battle as imminent.

PARIS, August 7th.—The Empress has issued the following proclamation:

Frenchmen: The opening of the war has not been favorable to us. We have suffererd a check. Let us be firm under this reverse, and let us hasten to repair it. Let there be but one party in the land—that of France; a single flag—that of the national honor. I come among you faithful to my mission and my duty. You will see me the first in danger to defend the flag of France. I conjure all good citizens to maintain order. To agitate would be to conspire with our enemies.

The Palace of Tulleries, the 7th day of August, 1870, 1 A. M.

EMPRESS EUGENIE.

LONDON, Augst 8th—4 P. M.—It is said positively that the Emperor is ill at Chalons, and that Doctors Nelaton and Ricord have gone to attend him.

LISBON, August 5th, via Paris, Aug. 7th.—It is credibly reported that Fernando has written a letter, in which he persists in the refusal of the crown of Spain. The letter is said to have created a sensation at Madrid.

THE GERMAN ACCOUNTS.

BERLIN, August 7th.—King William sends the following dispatch to the Queen:

"Good news! A great victory has been won by our Fritz. God be praised for His mercy. We have captured four thousand prisoners, thirty guns, two standards, and six mitrailleurs. McMahon, during the fight, was heavily reinforced from the main army. The contest was very severe, and lasted from eleven in the morning till nine at night, when the French retreated, leaving the field to us. Our losses are heavy."

MAYENCE, August 7th—4 A. M.—The Prince Royal reports:

August 6th, evening.—In the battle in which we defeated McMahon, whose corps had been reinforced by divisions from the corps of Failley and Canrobert, we have taken two eagles, six mitrailleurs, and at least four thousand prisoners. Gen. De Rose was wounded. The loss is great on both sides."

BERLIN, August 7th, (via London.) 1:30 P. M.—The French Emperor has withdrawn his entire force and is concentrating his troops for the defence of Paris. His losses have been enormous.

The Prussians overtook the retreating French forces early on Saturday morning, west of Saarbrucken, near Spluchen Hills, General Kamers commanded the forces, supported by Generals De Barnekow and Stulpnagel. General De Goeben ultimately assumed command. The action was severe. A position at which the French endeavored to make a stand during the retreat, was carried by the Prussians at the point of the bayonet. The battle is known as that of Haguenau.

THE AMERICAN ACCOUNTS.

NEW YORK, August 7.—The Herald's London special, dated to-day, says: Information has reached London that the defeat of McMahon is complete, and that the Crown Prince has advanced to Haguenau and captured the place, routing the French. The French loss is stated at four thousand, in addition to a great number of prisoners, thirty pieces of artillery and six mitrailleurs.

A report by dispatch from Berlin says that forces of Southern German troops (volunteers) crossed the Rhine and advanced to Strasbourg. The whole French army has been driven back, and is supposed to occupy the line between Metz and Nancy.

A later dispatch says: from official news received here the situation may be summed up as follows: The Crown Prince has driven Marshal McMahon's army from Wissenbourg and Lauterberg and Worth, and will probably compel the complete evacuation of Haguenau and Strasbourg.

BEGINNING OF THE END.

LONDON, August 10.—The Prince Imperial has arrived in London, and is now at the French Legation in charge of W. F. Smith, the Emperor's confidential agent. Smith also brought the Empress' jewels and valuables, and the famous diamonds of the Duke of Brunswick.

The Prussians, as they advance, discover the losses of the French in the first battle to have been frightful, exceeding the most extravagant estimates.

"DEAD OR VICTORIOUS."

PARIS, August 10.—A Dictatorship is anticipated, with General Trochu acting as the supreme head. The Emperor has been invited to return to the city and await the reconstruction of the Government. his refusal is considered certain.

LONDON, August 10.—Evening.—Paris telegrams to-night do not change the aspect of affairs. It seems true that the Emperor was solicited to return to Paris, and that he replied "he would return dead or victorious."

TERRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A terrible accident occurred on the West end of the Kansas Pacific track at Denver, (Col.), August 10th. A heavily loaded iron train getting beyond the centre of the train men, and the iron clogging the brakes, it ran into the rear end of the boarding train, demolishing the two rear cars and crushing in the end of the sleeping cars. Several persons were killed and wounded. The killed, so far as ascertained, were Mexicans sleeping in the cars.

CHINESE SUFFRAGE.—Forney's Philadelphia Press, a thorough radical journal, favors the admission of Chinese to citizenship, because it is in accordance with the fundamental principles of the Government. If the radical doctrine of universal equality be true, then Forney is right.

ELECTION NOTICE.

OFFICE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS,
WOODLAND, August 1st, 1870.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that an election will be held in the Third Supervisor District of Yolo County, California, on

The first Wednesday, 7th day, of September next,

For the election of a Supervisor of said District, to fill the vacancy about to occur in consequence of the expiration of the term now held by EDWARD ROBERTS, Esq.

The following are the Election Precincts composing the Third Supervisor District: East Grafton, West Grafton, North Grafton, Fairview, Cacheville, and Fremont.

By order of the Board of Supervisors.

E. ROBERTS, President.

Attest: E. BYNUM, Clerk.

RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE:

1. Every male citizen of the United States, and every male citizen of Mexico who shall have elected to become a citizen of the United States under the Treaty of Peace exchanged and ratified at Queretaro, on the 30th day of May, eighteen hundred and forty-eight, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of the State six months next preceding the election, and the county or District in which he claims his vote thirty days, shall be entitled to vote at all elections which are now or hereafter may be authorized by law; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the Legislature, by a two thirds concurrent vote, from admitting to the right of suffrage Indians, or the descendants of Indians, in such special cases as such a proportion of the Legislature may deem just and proper.—[Art. 2, Sec. 1, Constitution United States.]

185. Sec. 39. Whenever a meeting of the Board of Registration of any Precinct is required to be held, two members thereof shall be a quorum for the transaction of business; and if, in consequence of sickness, absence, or other temporary disability of any member, or a vacancy not filled, the attendance of but one member can be obtained, the places of the members absent may be supplied for that meeting by any two householders and legal voters of the precinct who have resided therein continuously for two years at least, to be appointed by the member in attendance, with the consent and concurrence of any Justice of the Peace of the County; and in case of the inability to attend of the Clerk and both the Judges of Elections, any Justice of the Peace, with any two householders, legal voters of the Precinct, by him to be appointed, shall act as the Board of Registration for that day. The householders aforesaid who may supply the place of the absent members of the Board of Registration shall severally be sworn by the Justice of the Peace faithfully to discharge their duties as members of said Board according to law. [This mode of filling vacancies is only to be pursued "when there is no alternate present and consenting to supply it." See Post 148.]

Dated—August 1st, 1870.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION ISSUED out of the District Court of the Sixth Judicial District of the State of California in and for the County of Yolo, and to me directed and delivered, for a Judgment rendered in said Court, on the 19th day of November, A. D. 1868, for the sum of fifty two and 75-100 dollars, costs, with interest on said sum, and also for a judgment rendered in said Court on the 18th day of March, 1869, for the sum of two hundred and sixty-six and 55-100 dollars, with interest thereon, and for the further sum of five and 75-100 dollars costs, and for all accruing costs, in favor of W. C. WRIGHT and against ALEXANDER ST. LOUIS, I have levied on the following property, to wit: The east half (½) of the northwest quarter (¼) of Section twenty-four (24), Township eleven (11) north, Range two (2) east. Also, the north half (½) of the southwest quarter (¼) of Section thirty-two (32) and north half (½) of southeast quarter (¼) of Section thirty-one (31), Township eleven (11) north, range two (2) east, Mount Diablo Meridian, in the County of Yolo, State of California. Notice is hereby given, that on SATURDAY, the 20th day of August, A. D. 1870, I will sell all the right, title and interest of said Alexander St. Louis in and to the above described property, at the Court House Door, in Woodland, at Public Auction, for cash in hand, to the highest and best bidder, to satisfy said Execution and all costs.

Town and County Matters.

[CORRESPONDENCE for this department is invited from all parts of the County.]

A Veteran Gone.

An old citizen of California, a sort of Daniel Boone, died in Woodland on the 6th instant, at the ripe old age of 81 years. His name, Ephraim Igo, will be remembered by many of our old pioneers and by many a hunter and trapper of years long past. In the year '46, when it became necessary to send a money-train across the plains to supply the disbursing officers of the American Army at Santa Fe with funds, it was found very difficult to obtain reliable men willing to undertake a winter trip through an inhospitable country, filled with enemies armed and lying in waiting. Such mountaineers and path-finders as Kit Carson, Bill Williams, and others, pronounced a winter trip an impossibility, and warned the Quarter-Master at Fort Leavenworth that such a thing was foolhardy in the extreme. But after much picking and choosing, a party composed of two officers, nine fighting men and five teamsters, was organized and sent with wagons loaded down with United States gold coin. The party started in cold winter weather, encountering first the perils of border white desperadoes and robbers, then such cold weather as few men ever lived through, and finally, as they approached the Mexican out-posts, some rough fighting against tremendous odds. During that notable winter of '46, something like sixty men were lost in other Government parties attempted to be sent across from Santa Fe to the States, and this old man, Ephraim Igo, assisted in burying many a poor fellow found frozen to death on the route.

When the party with which Mr. Igo was connected reached Santa Fe, after a trip of 87 days, the members, after being duly lionized for the performance of a feat supposed to be impossible, were inducted into warm quarters and such "high living" as could be found in Santa Fe. In a few days, one by one, they commenced dying, a fter a brief but terribly painful sickness, with inflamatory rheumatism. All died except Captain Murphy, Ephraim Igo, and the gentleman residing in Woodland who furnishes the information for this article. After a year or two Capt. Murphy died from a severe attack of inflamatory rheumatism, and everybody predicted the speedy and sure death of the other two survivors, especially of Mr. Igo, who was even then an old man; but the old man lived robustly and usefully for the twenty-four years which have intervened, and until a very recent period was as remarkable for his unflinching health as for his fine moral traits. He was among the last of a race now vanishing from the face of the earth—those hardy border men whose blameless lives and intrinsic good qualities seemed almost out of place amidst the sharp and fast men of now-a-days.

He died last Saturday, in Woodland, with the calm resignation and courage to be expected from such a veteran, and his last moments were made as comfortable as possible by a physician, kind and skilful, and by the attentions of those who, though strangers, were unsparing in their kind attentions to the dying man.

CAMP MEETING NOTICE.—Preaching at 9.30 A. M. and 3 and 8 P. M. Railroad passes can be had at tent No. 1, at any time except on Sabbath, or during public worship. Coaches will leave Overland House at 9 A. M., and at 1, 6, and 8.30 P. M. Coaches leave Camp ground at 10.30 A. M., 2, 7, and 9.30 P. M. Fare 25 cents, or 6 tickets for $1. The tents erected are all rented and more being prepared as needed. There is a numerous attendance present from Sacramento, Vallejo, Knight's Landing, Binghampton and other points in the State.

M. D. C. M.—By reference to our new advertisements will be found the professional card of Dr. Thomas Ross, a graduate of the McGill University, Montreal, and also a member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario, Canada. The Dr. has his parchment and copy of license to practice, and is a first-class physician. His office is that lately occupied by Dr. Geo. H. Jackson, where he may be found at all hours when not professionally engaged.

STATE MEETING.—We are requested to say that the Annual State Meeting of the Disciples in California, for 1870, will be held on the premises of Jason Watkins, 1½ miles North from Woodland. It will commence on the 30th day of September, and will continue at least ten days. Ample accommodations in the way of tent-room and provisions will be provided free of charge, and all are cordially invited to attend.

ON A VISIT.—Dr. Ray has gone East with his family on a visit to his old home in Illinois. His partner, Dr. Mehring, will faithfully and promptly attend to the business of the firm, and is, by the way, a first class physician, as many families in the County can testify.

LUSCIOUS PEACHES.—Mr. J. L. Gandy, Esq., has left upon our table a basket of the most delicious peaches we have seen for many a day. They are very large, rich in flavor and tempting to the appetite. Mr. Gandy has our thanks.

THE MAN TO APPLY TO.—If you want a lot to build on, our advice is to apply to Frost, where you can get one on your own terms. He will sell it to you for cash, half cash, or no cash at all.

PUBLIC SCHOOL.—The Public school of Woodland will open on Monday the 22d.

BORN,

At Cacheville, August 7th, to the wife of Dr. Thomas Dobbins, a daughter.

BUCKEYE.—From a correspondent we have a few items in relation to affairs about Buckeye:

Threshing is about all done and the busy season over. Harvest has been quite light, the average per acre being less than last year. The total yield, however, is about the same, owing to the greater amount put in.

Considerable indignation has been occasioned by the fraudulent transactions of a man who came up from Napa valley with a steam thresher, which he ran on shares. He collected the wages of his assistants and ran up a number of bills and then made off, leaving the machine in Buckeye to be reclaimed by the owner.

Our informant visited the ranch of Mr. Fisher and found that worthy gentleman mourning over the devastation of grasshoppers which this year has been very severe, destroying a large amount of vines and vegetables and almost ruining the crops along the base of the foothills.

Our esteemed friend Edgar seems to be the "last of the Mohegans" in the threshing line, and although complaining of the effects of the North wind in partially emptying his heads, seems to have harvested as fine a lot of Australian wheat as can be found in the county.

MEDICAL COMBINATION.—Drs. Peirson and Geo. H. Jackson have formed a copartnership for the practice of their profession, with their office for the present in that of late occupied by Dr. Pierson. They are both too well known to require any extended remarks at our hands, as their very extended practice testifies. Dr. Jackson takes the opportunity to recruit for a few weeks, and at the same time will visit the various medical institutions of this coast, and post himself generally. His practice will in the meantime be left in charge of Dr. Peirson.

YOLO COUNTY RACES.—The races to come off at Knight's Landing on the 25th, 26th and 27th of August, will afford great sport to the patrons of the turf and all who are fond of racing. We learn the entries are all full, so that a large amount of fine stock will compete for the stakes. The managers are getting everything in readiness for a gay time. The track is in excellent condition, and the horses, now in training, eager for the course. Doubtless many will be present from Sacramento, Marysville, Colusa and other points, as well as from all parts of this county.

DAVISVILLE SCHOOL HOUSE.—Notice appears in this paper, as required by law, appointing the 29th day of August for holding an election in Yolo District, to vote upon the question of raising funds to build a new school-house. The land necessary has been generously donated by the Railroad Company, and of course the vote will be largely in favor of the building so much needed.

TEMPERATURE FOR THE WEEK.—Ranges of the Thermometer for the week ending August 12th, 1870:

	Morn.	Noon.	Eve.	Avge.
Saturday	68	100	88	85
Sunday	64	94	82	80
Monday	70	94	85	84
Tuesday	70	94	89	84
Wednesday	66	98	87	82
Thursday	67	96	88	83
Friday	68	95	87	83

CHANGED HANDS.—The boot and shoe shop of Wm. Williams has been sold out to Naugle & Cooley, who will continue the same with satisfaction to their patrons. Mr. Williams returns to Brooklyn, near Oakland.

EXCURSIONS TO SAN FRANCISCO.—During the Orchestral Concerts which were to be given at San Francisco on the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th instants, excursion tickets were sold over the Cal. Pacific Railroad.

CAMP MEETING.—The Methodist Camp Meeting commenced on Thursday, under very favorable auspices and with quite a large attendance. Some forty tents have been erected.

ODD FELLOWS' BALL.—It is announced that the new Odd Fellows' Hall will be inaugerated by a grand ball upon its completion, which will be in a few weeks.

THE CHINESE.—There are 400,000,000 inhabitants in the Chinese Empire. Some years ago, in order to convey an idea of the immensity of that moving mass of barbarians, an ingenious savan made a novel calculation to determine how long a procession of 400,000,000 of people would make marching single file over the earth's surface. He ascertained that the marching column would encircle this planet more than eighteen times!

DON'T BE HUMBUGGED with the foolish idea that Catarrh cannot be cured! The world moves, and medical science is progressive. The proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay $500 reward for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. Sold by all Druggists. Can get it by mail for sixty cents from Dr. R. V. Pierce, of 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., who is the sole proprietor and the only man now living that can make the Genuine. Don't forget that the Genuine has the private Government Revenue Stamp on each package.

SAVE YOUR DOCTOR'S BILLS.—When Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure coughs, colds, bleeding at the lungs, and arrest the fell destroyer, Consumption, it does more than most physicians can do. A single trial will satisfy the incredulous.

Life Assurance.

WHY

You Should Insure Your Life.

BECAUSE you are liable to DIE at any moment, and if YOU are not thoughtful enough to make provision for your family while living, how can you expect others, who have less interest in them, to provide for them after you are DEAD.

Life Assurance

Affords the ONLY WAY in which a person, by an annual deposit of but a SMALL PORTION of his income, can secure AMPLE PROVISION for his family in case of his EARLY DEATH, or to HIMSELF at a specified time.

Why

YOU SHOULD INSURE YOUR LIFE WITH THE

EQUITABLE LIFE

Assurance Society

OF THE UNITED STATES:

BECAUSE its business is conducted on the PURELY MUTUAL and ALL CASH plan.

The Insurance Commissioner of Massachusetts says in his annual report:

"It is an obvious principle of Life Assurance that it CANNOT BE CONDUCTED ON CREDIT.

"The article in which the Company deals MUST BE PAID FOR IN CASH, before it can be supplied.

THE EQUITABLE LIFE

Has now become the LEADING COMPANY, and its NEW BUSINESS for the past year was THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS MORE than any Company in the world.

It exceeded the new business of the largest NOTE Companies by more than TWENTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS. Its Assets (1st of May, 1870,) were over $12,000,000,

ALL CASH, invested in Bond and Mortgages on Property worth double the amount loaned, and New York State Stocks and United States Stocks.

DIVIDENDS are declared and paid at the end of the first year, and every succeeding year, on the Contribution Plan—to reduce the Premium or add to the Policy.

The Society have just completed one of the finest buildings in the United States (in which they will have their own offices, Rent Free), from which they will receive a splendid interest on the investment.

All kinds of LIFE or ENDOWMENT Policies issued for COIN or CURRENCY, on the Non-Forfeitable plan. Also, the TONTINE-DIVIDEND POLICIES, highly recommended by the leading Merchants and Bankers of the East.

WOOLSEY'S CELEBRATED

Universal Washer.

In introducing Woolsey's Celebrated UNIVERSAL WASHER, I desire to say that it has been used in the Atlantic States with greater success than any other machine ever introduced, and I challenge any and all others to a test of quality. It takes less wood and water, less soap and labor, (the water is heated by a stove attached), a child ten years old can operate it, and it does not wear out clothes as other machines, as it neither rubs nor pounds the clothes. It will wash the finest fabrics and the largest quilt or blanket. If it fails in anything I claim for it, the money will be refunded if desired.

This Valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of Bowel Diseases, in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where the disease is more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the natives as well as the European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskilful hands. Directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1 per bottle. jy16-1m

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP.

Believing that every man should be held personally responsible for whatever he offers to the public as an antidote for any existing evil, and that no honest man can, for the sake of gain, offer as a remedy that which may prove an injury, we shall say no more than we believe to be strictly true, and easily proved, in relation to the merits of

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup!

We have known it for many years as a valuable remedy in all Pulmonary Complaints. It has been given to a great number of persons, old and young, male and female, and it can be truly said that rarely, if ever, was known a single instance in which it has not effected a speedy cure of the most violent cold or long-seated cough; and, in case of Asthma, whooping-cough, sore throat, or any affection of the throat or lungs, we have yet to hear of the first instance in which it has not afforded entire satisfaction. We do not pretend to say that

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup

Is a remedy for "all the ills that flesh is heir to," but we do say that, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, it has been found to be a safe, pleasant, and sovereign remedy for the most violent cold, long-neglected cough, sore throat, asthma, whooping-cough, or any affection of the throat or lungs arising, as almost all such complaints do, from what is at first considered nothing but a "slight cold"—the final consequences of which need not be pointed out. Prominent, however, among the ills thus engendered, is that of Consumption, for which it is said there is no remedy, and perhaps there is not. But if

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup,

Which we so strongly recommend, be a remedy for such complaints as we have enumerated, what effect will it have upon that scourge of the human race, CONSUMPTION? We answer, it will be to afford its victims immediate relief; it will check the ever-accompanying cough; this done, refreshing sleep is sure to follow, and, in its train, increase of strength, a brighter eye, a more cheerful countenance—and, why not a restoration to health? CURE YOUR COLD while it is yet what you consider but a slight one, and you will have less occasion to seek a remedy for any of the countless ills so sure to follow from it when too long neglected. Cure it in your children, instead of allowing them to retire to their beds night after night with a SLIGHT COLD, from which almost every family has had sad experience; they too often rise with headache, sore throat, or fever.

A kind Providence has placed at the disposal of His intelligent creatures, all the remedies requisite for the relief of such diseases as He permits to afflict mankind. Among the gravest in this category are those of the CHEST and LUNGS. A thorough and patient investigation into the character and treatment of these affections, has resulted in the selection and approval, by the more intelligent of the present day, of

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup,

The use of which is synonymous with speedy relief and health. Consumptives, try it! For sale by all Druggists.

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup,

Should be resorted to on the slightest indication of a cough, cold or asthma.

A TEN-ACRE field near Chico yielded eighty bushels of barley to the acre this season.

THE Chinese sell blackberries at Eureka, Humboldt, at six bits a bucket, or three bits a bootfull.

THE Radicals of Pittsburg, (Pa.) declare that no colored individual can have a place on their ticket.

FREDERICK DOUGLASS has declared that he never will be satisfied until he stands in the halls of Congress.

A NOTORIOUS character by the name of James Dobson was killed a few days ago in San Francisco by a gambler named John Tyler.

THOSE spots on the sun that were recently charged with making the weather cold are now accused of producing the hot spell.

THE New Orleans Times says: "English ale and brown stout, sold in England and Ireland at forty-five cents per dozen, is retailed in New Orleans at fifty cents per bottle. Good case claret, sold in Havre at seventy-five cents per dozen, is retailed in New Orleans at seventy-five cents per bottle. And yet we stand it."

A GLASGOW merchant, on his death bed, sent for a Free Church clergyman. Having some fears regarding his future prospects, he asked the reverend gentleman: "Do you think if I were to leave $10,000 to the Free Kirk, that my soul would be saved?" "Well," answered the cautious minister, "I couldn't just promise you that, but I think it's an experiment well worth trying."

A GENTLEMAN who recently spent some time in Spanish Honduras, where capsicum or the red pepper grows as a perenial, forming quite high bushes, says that he often saw from his window the ordinary barnyard fowls fly up into growing pepper plants and strip them of foilage and seed pods, eating them with avidity. The fowls there seemed exceedingly healthy and prolific layers. Is it not probale that more capsicum fed to our chickens would be to their benefit?

THE number of Chinese in the country at the end of 1869 is estimated at 90,000, among whom were but 5,000 women and 2,000 children. Since immigration began in 1848, 138,000 have come to the United States, of whom 38,000 have returned to China, and about 10,000 have died. Of the number present in the country, about one-half are in California, 25,000 in other Pacific States and Territories, while fully 15,000 have crossed the Rocky Mountains.

AN extraordinary incident has taken place in a gentleman's house in Koomartolee in Calcutta. A child of a native gentleman, not more than a month old, was sleeping near the bosom of its mother in a two-storied room, when about 7½ o'clock P. M., the mother fell slightly asleep, a jackal entered the room, and took away the baby from the arms of the mother to a little distance from the room. At this time some of the members of the house entered the apartment, when the animal ran away, leaving the child wounded.

MARSHAL MCMAHON.—Marie Edme Patrick Maurice de McMahon, Duke of Magenta, who takes command of the French armies, is reported to trace his descent to an Irish family who lost their fortune in the cause of the Stuart dynasty, and shared the exile of James II. They carried their pride and gallantry to France, distinguished themselves in many wars, and through advantageous marriages, mingled their blood with the highest nobility in the land.

The Duke of Magenta was born at Sully, July, 1808; entered the millitary school of St. Cyr, in 1825, and after graduating in 1830, was sent to Algeria. As aide-de-camp to Gen. Achard, he took part in the expedition to Antwerp in 1832, was made Captain in 1833, Major of foot chasseurs in 1840, Lieut. Colonel of the Foreign Legion in 1842, Colonel of the Forty-first of the Line in 1845, and General of Brigade in 1848. When Gen. Conrobert was called from the Crimea in 1855, McMahon was appointed to succeed him as a General of Division, and in that capacity led the assault upon the Malakoff. His brilliant success on that occasion gave him the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor, and in 1856 he was made Knight Grand Cross of the Order of Bath. He took an active part in the Franco-Italian war of 1859, won the victory of Magenta, and with it the baton of Marshal and the title he now wears. He represented France at the coronation of Frederick William, of Prussia, in 1861; was appointed to the command of the Third Corps d'Armee in 1862, and was nominated Governor General of Algeria in 1864. McMahon is considered one of the best soldiers in Europe.

JONAH'S GRAVE.—I had almost forgotton to say that at the village of Nineveh, the spot where the miraculous gourd grew, is still pointed out. The same spot, according to Mosaic tradition, is the site of Jonah's grave, and a mosque, not very handsome, has been erected upon it. We succeeded, after a great deal of trouble, in getting an order from the Pacha to view the interior, and, greatly to the disgust of the guardian of the shrine, he had to let us in, making us, however, take off our boots, and grumbling loudly that never before had a Christian's foot defiled the mosque. But we saw nothing worth describing. The reputed tomb is covered up with rich draperies, which are never removed.—Cor. N. Y. Herald.

THE HOWE MACHINE CO.'S

WORLD RENOWNED

SEWING MACHINES!

Paris Exposition Universelle, 1867,

TWO GRAND PRIZES,

Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor,

To ELIAS HOWE, JR., as the inventor; and Gold Medal for the best Sewing Machine!

The Highest Honors Ever Conferred for Sewing Machines.

This Machine has long been regarded as the standard of excellence, and has become celebrated the world over. The work done by these Machines is unsurpassed—sewing the thinnest muslin or the thickest cloth, with equal facility; and requiring no extra adjusting for uneven thickness or passing over seams: it turns its own hem as it sews, sewing a seam stronger than the fabric itself. To see it hem, fell, tuck, braid, cord, quilt and gather, it seems more like a thing of life than a machine moved by the will of the operator. It is capable of doing every description of sewing that is required in a family; and also for seamstresses and dressmakers it will be found invaluable. They seldom, or never give any trouble in operating, and in a word, are the most satisfactory Sewing Machines in use.

Notwithstanding their great superiority, they are sold at prices as low as other first-class machines.

A Medallion likeness of Mr. Howe is embedded in the plates of every Howe Machine, without which none are genuine. Every purchaser of a Sewing Machine should inquire for ELIAS HOWE, JR.'S SEWING MACHINE, and if they are not sold in their vicinity, address the General Agency for Illustrated Circulars, etc., and do not purchase until you have thoroughly investigated these renowned machines.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

—FOR—

Diseases of the Throat & Lungs,

Such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men, it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat that the most obstinate yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Billious Fever, &c., and in all the affections which arise from malarious, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does cure, and does not fail. Containing neither arsenic, quinine, bismuth, zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the Ague Cure daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the liver into healthy activity.

For Billious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

PRICE, $1.00 PER BOTTLE.

Sold by all druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. Crane & Brigham, San Francisco, R. H. McDonald & Co., Sacramento, are our wholesale agents. my7tau14

This remedy does not simply relieve for a short time, but it produces perfect and permanent cures of the worst cases of Chronic Nasal Catarrh, and I will pay $500 reward for a case that I cannot cure. "Cold in the head" and Catarrhal Headache are cured with a few applications. If you have a discharge from the nose, offensive or otherwise, stopping up of the nose at times, partial loss of the sense of smell, taste or hearing, eyes watering or weak, feel dull, have pain or pressure in the head, you may rest assured that you have Catarrh. Thousands annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, terminate in Consumption and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive or less understood by physicians. I will send my pamphlet on Catarrh to any address free. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is now

SOLD BY MOST DRUGGISTS IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

Price fifty cents. Sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of sixty cents, or four packages for two dollars. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. See that my private Stamp, which is a positive guarantee of genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. Remember that this private stamp, issued by the United States Government expressly for stamping my medicines, has my portrait, name and address, and the words "U. S. Certificate of Genuineness" engraved upon it, and not be mistaken. Don't be swindled by travelers and others representing themselves as Dr. Sage. I am the only man now living that has the knowledge and right to manufacture the genuine Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I never travel to sell this medicine. R. V. PIERCE, M. D.,

NEW WEED

SEWING MACHINES!

"The Last and Best!"

The following is the fac-simile of the Medal awarded to the WEED Sewing Machines at the late Paris Exposition:

The Weed Sewing Machine Company have now at last completed their Three Standard styles of Weed Sewing Machines.

First—Their new "Family Favorite." Second—Their new, light and noiseless Manufactures' Sewing Machine. Thirdly—Their immense heavy "Manufacturers' Favorite." The three together combining the advantages of all others up to the present time, being the BEST made and doing the best work—has received throughout Europe, the States, and on this coast, the First and Highest Premium at each and every public Fair since 1867 (the year it was completed,) where any premium at all has been given or where its strong points have been really exhibited.

There is a difference!—All the Premiums that the WEED Sewing Machine Company claim, from the first and Highest Premium at the Great World's Fair at Paris, in 1867, up to the present time, (see small circulars), are each and every one genuine awards, or we will forfeit $500 for each and every false claim! Other Sewing Machines have had their Premiums, but how many of them in the last two years?

There is a difference! Says the True Chronicle: "This magnificent Sewing Machine comes forward in good time and strikes exactly the right mark." Also, the editor of the Independent says: "Such a Sewing Machine as the Weed—the New F. F.—we have never seen." Thus the New Weed Sewing Machine is the simplest and strongest, the last, and as we believe in modern improvement we may add the BEST Sewing Machine made as yet. It is the best Family Sewing Machine; it is the best Boot, Tailor, Saddler's Sewing Machine; it is the most successful Sewing Machine! for already its name is a household word both in Europe and America, and is rapidly taking the place of all others. Its immense central manufactory is in Hartford, Connecticut. Agents in all the principal cities in the world.

Price, from $65 to $500.

Grover & Baker's
ELASTIC STITCH
FAMILY
SEWING MACHINES
Excel all others.
They are more simple and durable, easier kept in order, make a stronger and more elastic stitch, a firmer and more beautiful seam than any other. They sew all fabrics from two common spools, require no rewinding of thread, fasten both ends of the seam by their own operation, and though every fifth at itch is cut the seam will not rip.
They Stitch, Ham, Fell, Cord, Bind, Tuck, Quilt, Gather, Braid, Embroider, Ruffle, Puff, and excel in Every Class of Machine Work.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and destroyed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

Hair Dressing,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

SEWING MACHINES!

The FLORENCE has now been used on the Pacific Coast seven years; its merits are known and its reputation established.

It is here in daily use in more than six thousand homes, and is effectually speaking for itself like

"Gold Tried in the Fire!"

Competition and opposition—fair and unfair, have not consumed or injured it. It stands the practical test upon a greater range of work than any other Family Sewing Machine in use.

If there is a Florence Machine within one thousand miles of San Francisco not giving entire satisfaction, if informed of it, I will attend to it promptly, without expense of any kind to the owner.

WHEELER & WILSON.

THE GREAT TRIAL OF

SEWING MACHINES!

THE GRANDEST IN THE WORLD!

The Judges, the whole world; and the trial, fifteen years duration.

Practical Use the Test!

THE UNIVERSAL VERDICT:

"The Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine the Champion!"

As a Holiday Present, nothing would be more appreciated than one of these Machines.

These unequalled Machines do all the different kinds of work required to be done in a family, and make all the different kinds of Stitches, without the complications of the other Machines.

All persons will please examine the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine before purchasing any other.

The Wheeler & Wilson as is well known, has won at nearly every trial in which it has competed, the highest award of merit. The representatives of other machines, ever confident, have entered the lists, time and again, only to be defeated; and finding it impossible to compete fairly, have endeavored to decry the value of Premiums. They are not slow, however, to boast of the few they have received. But in the grand trial, daily use throughout the world, where only true merit finds favor, and superiority wins the race, the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine stands triumphantly the champion by the verdict of the people.

These Machines are adapted to every Variety of Sewing!

From the lightest muslins to the heaviest cloths. They work equally well upon Silk, Linen, Woolen or Cotton goods, with Silk, Linen or Cotton thread: Seaming, Quilting, Gathering, Hemming, Felling, Cording, Tucking, Braiding, Embroidering and making Button Holes, with the greatest facility.

If it be inconvenient for the purchaser to visit the salesroom, the order may be forwarded to the office, and it will be as faithfully filled as if the selection had been made personally.

Full instructions, recently compiled, and giving full information upon every point in detail, accompany each Machine, and enable the most inexperienced to operate without difficulty.

Our interest in the successful working of Machines is not second to that of the purchaser, and we esteem it a privilege to add, by correspondence or otherwise, any person requiring it. W. M. STODDARD,

General Agent for Pacific Coast.

THE ELLIPTIC

SEWING MACHINES,

Warranted the Best!

The Elliptic Sewing Machines are manufactured and warranted by the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company. The late and important improvements enable us to guarantee to every purchaser that the Elliptic Machine will do more work, better work, and a greater variety of work than any other Sewing Machine now in use. The economy of the Elliptic Machine in a family is almost incredible: with one, a good operator can do the work of twelve hands. By it, the making of garments is reduced from a question of hours to one of minutes, as the following table will show:

(It is not to be understood that the following table is the time to make garments, but to do the stitching only.)
